

Shauna E. Woods

Attorney

310.272.7931
swoods@kbkfirm.com

Shauna E. Woods' practice focuses on litigation, counseling, and dispute resolution in complex business disputes. She has successfully resolved real estate, antitrust, intellectual property, trade secret, contract, securities, and employment disputes in state and federal courts for clients across various industries, including makeup manufacturing, small cell infrastructure, hotel management, and lock manufacturing. Ms. Woods has appeared and argued in numerous cases before state and federal trial courts. She also has provided pro bono representation to tenants seeking better living conditions and undocumented immigrants applying for asylum and Special Immigrant Juvenile Status.

Education

Duke University School of Law, J.D., 2014

- Cum laude
- Alaska Law Review, Executive Editor

University of California, Santa Barbara, B.A., History, 2010

- Cum Laude, Departmental Distinction
- Recipient of the Dick Cook Award for Outstanding Research

Representative Matters

Commercial Litigation

- Served as the lead associate in the defense of a lock manufacturer in antitrust litigation filed by a competitor.
- Served as the lead associate in the defense of an employer which favorably settled a wrongful termination lawsuit filed by a former employee.
- Served as an integral member of legal team which favorably settled a contract dispute brought against a mobile infrastructure company.

Clerkship

U.S. District Court, Central District of California

- Hon. Virginia A. Phillips

- Served as an integral member of legal team, which defended a medical device manufacturer against allegations of market manipulation and securities fraud. The case was favorably settled.

Pro Bono and Public Interest Litigation

- Represented an HIV-positive mother and her son who were seeking asylum.
- Successfully represented several children seeking Special Immigrant Juvenile Status in the United States.

- Assisted in the representation of a group of tenants who were suing their landlord for various habitability issues within an apartment building.
 - Successfully negotiated relocation benefits for a pregnant woman and her husband when their landlord renovated their apartment.
-

Recognition and Affiliations

- Los Angeles County Bar Association, Member
 - Association of Business Trial Layers, Member
 - Women's Law Association of Los Angeles, Member
 - JDRF Young Leadership Committee, Board Member
-

Publications and Appearances

- "The 'Middle Place:' The NPR-A Impact Mitigation Program and Alaska's North Slope," 30 ALASKA L. R. 263-94 (2013)
-

Prior to Kendall Brill & Kelly

- Goodwin Procter, LLP, 2016-2018
Associate
-

Bar and Court Admissions

- California, 2014
 - U.S. District Court
Central, Northern, Eastern, and Southern Districts of California
-

Kendall Brill & Kelly LLP

10100 Santa Monica Blvd.
Suite 1725
Los Angeles, CA 90067

310.556.2700 Telephone
310.556.2705 Fax